Prevea Health Welcomes New Cardiologist

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GREEN BAY, Wis. —August 12, 2009— Prevea Health welcomes cardiologist Kendra Marsh, MD. Dr. Marsh will see patients at the Allouez Prevea Health Center, located at 1821 S. Webster Avenue.

Prevea Health is once again excited to welcome a female cardiologist, especially one who has a particular interest in women's health. According to the American Heart Association, coronary heart disease, which causes heart attack, is the single leading cause of death for American women, and females represent 52.6 percent of overall deaths from cardiovascular disease. "I, like many others in this country, have had family members afflicted with chronic illness including heart disease. This has made me more sensitive to the concerns of my patients in helping them to achieve good health," says Dr. Marsh. She focuses on implementing the latest in medical technology to promote wellness and prevention of cardiovascular disease.

Dr. Marsh recently completed her Cardiology fellowship at the University of Illinois at Chicago. She completed an Internal Medicine residency at Yale New Haven Hospital in New Haven, Connecticut, and earned her medical degree from Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee. She earned her undergraduate degree at Yale University.

Prevea Health's mission is to take care of people with passion, pride, and respect. Founded in 1996, Prevea Health partners with St. Mary's and St. Vincent Hospitals in Green Bay, and St. Nicholas Hospital in Sheboygan to provide access to more than 200 providers in over 50 specialty areas. Prevea's 18 locations are throughout metropolitan Green Bay and in Marinette, Oconto, Plymouth, Pulaski, Seymour, Sheboygan and Sturgeon Bay. Visit www.prevea.com for more information.
